VACANCY ON BOARD OF ZONING APPEALS

PURCELLVILLE, Va. May 19, 2015 - The Town of Purcellville currently has a vacancy on the Board of Zoning Appeals. As the Town would like to fill this vacant position as soon as possible, interested citizens should submit applications and resumes and/or letter of interest by June 1, 2015. Information pertaining to this Board can be found on the Town's website.

The Town also accepts applications on an ongoing basis for vacancies which might occur in the future. Citizens interested in serving on this or any committee, commission or board should complete and submit an application along with a letter of interest and/or resume outlining your qualifications. An online application can be found on the Town's website at www.purcellvilleva.gov by clicking on the Government tab then Committees, Commissions, and Boards. You may also pick up an application at Town Hall during normal business hours.

The Town of Purcellville, Virginia

Purcellville is an award-winning town of nearly 8,300 residents located in Loudoun County, approximately 40 miles west of Washington, DC. It has been honored for its green initiatives, most recently with the prestigious Siemens Sustainability Award for Small Communities. The Town has an elected Mayor and six Town Council members. Once a stop along the W&OD rail line, Purcellville has maintained its historic old-town feel through the restoration and maintenance of its many downtown structures, reflecting the Victorian architecture popular during the early 1900s. Today, Purcellville is the economic hub of western Loudoun County and a popular weekend destination for antiquing, entertainment, farmer's markets, wineries, breweries, distilleries and restaurants.
