The Purcellville Arts Council Presents Lion King Preview

PURCELLVILLE, VA. February 10, 2016 - The Purcellville Arts Council presents a special preview of Blue Ridge Middle School's performance of The Lion King Jr. Two short promos will be held in Purcellville's Historic Train Station on Saturday, February 13, 2016 at 11:00am and 2:00pm. Blue Ridge Middle School cast members playing "Scar and the Hyenas" will first sing "Be Prepared" at 11:00am with "Nala and the Lionesses" singing "Shadowland" at 2:00pm.   Drama Director Dolly Stevens says, "Come to the Train Station on Saturday to see this sneak-peek of The Lion King, Jr. at Blue Ridge MS, opening Feb. 26th and running through March 6th!"   The Purcellville Arts Council is a Town of Purcellville committee which supports the visual and performing arts.

The Town of Purcellville, Virginia
Purcellville is an award-winning town of nearly 8,300 residents located in Loudoun County, approximately 40 miles west of Washington, DC. It has been honored for its green initiatives, most recently with the prestigious Siemens Sustainability Award for Small Communities. The Town has an elected Mayor and six Town Council members. Once a stop along the W&OD rail line, Purcellville has maintained its historic old-town feel through the restoration and maintenance of its many downtown structures, reflecting the Victorian architecture popular during the early 1900s. Today, Purcellville is the economic hub of western Loudoun County and a popular weekend destination for antiquing, entertainment, farmer's markets, wineries, breweries, distilleries and restaurants.
