Purcellville Announces Locations for Town Wide Popup Sale Scheduled for Columbus Day Weekend

PURCELLVILLE, Va. September 29, 2016 — The Town of Purcellville is excited to announce nearly 60 locations are participating in the “Purcellville Popup Sale,” formerly the Town-Wide Tag Sale, taking place on Columbus Day Weekend, October 8-9, 2016. In addition to selling their own inventory, some businesses will be hosting other retailers at their locations, creating a tent sale atmosphere. Residents are also taking this opportunity to sell their personal goods in a yard sale type setting.

This special weekend activity allows for all interested parties to take advantage of the Town-wide synergy of multiple vendors and a large selection of goods. While this activity has taken many forms over the years, it has always been a popular way for residents and visitors to find the very best items for sale in Town. Shoppers are encouraged to stroll throughout Town to visit all of the retailers, as well as to take advantage of the Town’s great restaurants and craft beverage options.

The current list of vendors is provided below, as well as on the Town’s dedicated webpage for this event at <http://www.purcellvilleva.gov/popupsale>. Also at that link is an interactive map that shows all of the participating locations. The map can be opened on a computer or mobile device, which allows for direct integration with Google Maps.

Any additional businesses or residents are welcome to submit their locations by Friday, October 7th for inclusion on the above-referenced map. The form to submit information is also provided at <http://www.purcellvilleva.gov/popupsale>.

Please note there is NO CENTRAL LOCATION where vendors will be set up. All vendors will be at a place of business or residence. The Bush Tabernacle and Fireman's Field Parking Lot will not be used for vendors this year.
