TOWN OF PURCELLVILLE BECOMES ASSOCIATE MEMBER OF THE I-95 CORRIDOR COALITION

PURCELLVILLE, Va. — JULY 9, 2018 —The I-95 Corridor Coalition is an alliance of transportation agencies, toll authorities, and related organizations including public safety, from the state of Maine to the state of Florida with affiliate members in Canada. The Coalition provides a forum for key decision and policy makers to address transportation management and operations issues of common interest. As an Associate member, the Town of Purcellville may have representatives on any or all of the Program Track Committees to include:

- Travel Information Services
- Coordinated Incident Management & Safety
- Intermodal Freight Movement & Passenger Travel

All members benefit from working together toward a safe and seamless transportation system in the region. “The I-95 Corridor Coalition enables the Town of Purcellville to embrace a regional approach in addressing transportation challenges and advancing transportation solutions,” said Mayor Kwasi Fraser.

About the I-95 Coalition:

Information regarding the I-95 Corridor Coalition and its structure, projects, and activities can be found on the Coalition’s website at www.i95coalition.org.

The Town of Purcellville, Virginia

Purcellville is an award-winning town of over 9,000 residents located in Loudoun County, approximately 40 miles west of Washington, DC. Having received the prestigious Siemens Sustainability Award for Small Communities, Purcellville continues to be honored for its green initiatives with most recently being the Tree City USA recipient for the 10th year. The Town was reaffirmed as a AAA rated community by S&P Global Ratings, the highest credit rating possible, and is recognized as one of the safest towns in Virginia. Once a stop along the W&OD rail line, Purcellville has maintained its historic old-town feel through the restoration and maintenance of its many downtown structures, reflecting the Victorian architecture popular during the early 1900s. Today, Purcellville is the economic hub of western Loudoun County and a popular weekend destination for antiquing, entertainment, farmer’s markets, wineries, breweries, distilleries and restaurants.
