TOWN OF PURCELLVILLE PARTNERS WITH KEEP LOUDOUN BEAUTIFUL FOR COMMUNITY CLEAN UP

PURCELLVILLE, Va. – March 20, 2018 — The Town of Purcellville once again partnered with Keep Loudoun Beautiful to participate in the annual Town-wide Clean Up. We had approximately 200 volunteers and collected 186 bags of waste – over ¾ tons - of trash and recycling! Our volunteers included our area coordinator Adam Broshkevitch from Loudoun Valley High School, Town Councilmembers and Candidates, local boy and girl scout troops, high school students, teachers, business owners, Makersmiths, Loudoun Democrats, Church members, and other neighbors and friends from in and around Town.

A special thank you to Pack Rat Hauling for their participation in the clean-up. Pack Rat Hauling donated a truck and 2 employees to pick up all of the collected trash and recycling bags around Town and haul them to the recycling center and landfill.

Thank you to all of our volunteers for coming out to help keep our community beautiful. We look forward to seeing everyone next year!
