FOURTH ANNUAL PURCELLVILLE TURKEY PARDONING
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2019, 12:00 PM

PURCELLVILLE, Va., October 28, 2019 - Come celebrate the Fourth Annual Turkey Pardoning at the Purcellville Town Hall, 221 S. Nursery Avenue, Purcellville – at noon, Saturday, Nov. 2. Join Purcellville Mayor Kwasi Fraser and the Town Council in pardoning a very lucky turkey named Morgana Doo Doo Doo Doo Doo Doo.

Morgana grew up in Houston, but realized she wanted to live in the Washington D.C. metro area, and escaped at a young age. She’s a big fan of the Nats, and watches every game she can. She resides at her home, Springdale Inn in Purcellville, where she is a favorite among her peers – and is looking forward to her pardoning.

After the pardoning ceremony, come join the Mayor and Council for cookies and refreshments at Town Hall. Let’s celebrate the Thanksgiving season and support our local food pantries.

The Town of Purcellville, Virginia

“Purcellville-your small Town, where history and progress intersect and people prosper,” is an award-winning town of over 10,000 residents located in Loudoun County, approximately 50 miles west of Washington, DC. Having received the prestigious Siemens Sustainability Award for Small Communities, Purcellville continues to be honored for its green initiatives with most recently being the Tree City USA recipient for the 12th year. The Town was reaffirmed as a AAA rated community by S&P Global Ratings, the highest credit rating possible, and is recognized as one of the safest towns in Virginia. Once a stop along the W&OD rail line, which has been converted to a multi-use trail from Alexandria, VA to Purcellville, the town has maintained its historic old-town feel through the restoration and maintenance of its many downtown structures, reflecting the Victorian architecture popular during the early 1900s. Today, Purcellville is the economic hub of western Loudoun County and a popular weekend destination for antiquing, equestrian activities, farmer’s markets, wineries, breweries, distilleries and restaurants.
