THIRD VIRTUAL CONCERT FOR MUSIC IN THE TABERNACLE SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY, JUNE 19

PURCELLVILLE, Va. June 15, 2021 — The Purcellville Parks and Recreation Advisory Board is pleased to introduce the third virtual concert of the Music in the Tabernacle series. On Saturday, June 19, visit the Purcellville Parks and Recreation Facebook page at 7:00 p.m. to watch these local performers: Tobago Bay, the Willie White Band, and Baxter Tunes Folk & Roll. This is the third of four virtual concerts featuring eight local musicians and bands recorded in the Bush Tabernacle by OHM Productions with Loudoun DJ as the host. The virtual concerts are being published each Saturday in June, 2021, and the first two have reached more than 1,300 people. Watch the June 5 concert with Ben Demase and Megan Waltman. Watch the June 12 concert featuring King St. and the Virginia Hipnecks.

Below is an introduction to the performers who will be featured on June 19, 2021.

Tobago Bay

Tobago Bay is Northern Virginia's hot Calypso band featuring music from the Caribbean and the sound of steel drums. A stylistically unique band from day one, they have been singing, performing, and playing together since 2000. From Virginia to Washington, D.C. to Maryland's Eastern Shore, their professional and versatile group can be configured in a variety of ways ranging from solo steel pan to the full five-member compliment, and their wide musical repertoire includes both vocal and instrumental tunes.

Willie White Band

The Willie White Band consists of seasoned local musicians Willie White on guitar and vocals, Wade Crouse on bass and vocals, Scott Marks on Saxophone and Joe Castelhana on drums. The band currently performs a blend of original and cover versions of rock, blues and classic country at various venues in Loudoun County and the surrounding areas.

Influences include The Band, Tom Petty, Bob Dylan, and Johnny Cash among others. Their show consists of everything from upbeat, improvised jams to vocal harmonies over mellow ballads and classic songs. You can also find the band members locally, individually performing as solo acoustic artists and numerous collaborations in the area.

Baxter Tunes Folk & Roll

Bryan Baxter grew up in the Winchester area and spent his teenage years and early adulthood following his ear wherever it led him. A self-taught guitarist, he was eventually drawn to more soulful music without limiting himself to any one genre. Influences on Bryan's music include Bob Dylan, Grateful Dead, Hank Williams, Sr, and Norman Blake; his original songs include genres of bluegrass, jazz, folk, and rock. His open-minded musical spirit inevitably led him to unearthing a knack for writing songs of his own and adding them seamlessly into his every-day playing. His passion for music has put him on stage in such locations as South Carolina, Florida, Virginia, West Virginia, and even Cuba.

Music in the Tabernacle is sponsored by: Mountaineer Pipe, Keren Jayne Homes, Presidential Bank, Bayside Professional Services, DiRenzo Family Dentistry, Kettles and Grains, Longhouse Architects, Loudoun Valley Roofing, Purcellville Business Association, and Shamrock Music Shoppe. The Purcellville Parks and Recreation Advisory Board thanks these sponsors for their generosity and recognizes the Bush Tabernacle for supporting this event.

The Town of Purcellville, Virginia

"Purcellville-your small Town, where history and progress intersect and people prosper," is an award-winning town of over 10,000 residents located in Loudoun County, approximately 50 miles west of Washington, DC. Having received the prestigious Siemens Sustainability Award for Small Communities, Purcellville continues to be honored for its green initiatives with most recently being the Tree City USA recipient for the 13th year. The Town was reaffirmed as a AAA rated community by S&P Global Ratings, the highest credit rating possible, and is ranked "Safest City" in Virginia in 2020. Once a stop along the W&OD rail line, which has been converted to a multi-use trail from Alexandria, VA to Purcellville, the Town has maintained its historic old-town feel through the restoration and maintenance of its many downtown structures, reflecting the Victorian architecture popular during the early 1900s. Today, Purcellville is the economic hub of western Loudoun County and a popular weekend destination for antiquing, equestrian activities, farmer's markets, wineries, breweries, distilleries and restaurants.
